“THE PRIORITY IS THE RETURN TO PEACE, QUIET AND SECURITY” PRES. MACRON STATED

UPON HIS ARRIVAL IN NEW CALEDONIA

Paris, Washington DC, Zanzibar, 22.05.2024, 23:39 Time

USPA NEWS - The President of the French Republic Emmanuel Macron, has just landed at 11:50 p.m. (CEST), at La Tontouta airport, in New Caledonia, this French archipelago, located 17,000 km from Paris, following the consequences serious which arise from the riots of the separatists for a week, with six deaths already, including two gendarmes. The origin of the tensions can be explained by the constitutional revision planning to modify the current electoral body.

President Macron is accompanied by the Minister of the Interior Gerald Darmanin who has been there seven times, the Minister of Defense and the Armed Forces, Sébastien Lecornu and Marie Guevenoux, Minister of Overseas Territories.

The title of President Macron's trip is "creation of a Noumea mission", this mission will consist of members from civil society rather than politicians.

President Macron addressed journalists on the tarmac of Nouméa airport very briefly to the press, declaring that "The priority is the return to peace, calm and security"

President Macron continues "My will here with, the ministries and the entire government and I thank the elected high commission, the forces of the authorities and the elected officials.

We will address the questions of economic, rapid and most delicate political reconstructions of the future of New Caledonia. » he explained to the extended microphones of journalists on the tarmac.

The Head of State then explained his express visit program (scheduled for 12 hours on site) "I am therefore going to the High Commission where I am going to listen to the institutional and customary forces, with the aim of listening to them

"I am here with determination for a return to calm, with great respect and humility and we will pay tribute to the victims" President Macron thus indicated.... This is not a postponement, our correspondent not having made the trip to Noumea in the French Presidency/Elysee pool. It is summarized here, through information collected from other press agencies and TV channels in France, an editorial concerning the trip of the President of the French Republic to New Caledonia, May 22, 2024.TBC
